

Inside the High Sierra

Arriving this Spring! The new book from High Sierra Photographer and Climber Claude Fiddler

A limited-edition print run of 1,000 signed copies. Hardbound linen-cover with tipped in cover photo. Printed on 200 NCI archival paper from Japan. Foreword, Tom Hornbein, author of Everest: The West Ridge. Photographer's Note with an essay on taking a Sierra picture, Joe Holmes. 55 eight x10 inch photos from 35 years of Claude's large-format and high-end digital images. Essays from Michael Cohen, Laurel Fiddler, Peter Croft, and Dick Dorworth. Pen and ink drawings from acclaimed artist Valerie Cohen. A photographer's Notes on the Plates (25,000 words) describing the story and technical details behind each photo.

In addition to the hardbound copies there will be a Collector's Edition of 40 books presented in custom made recycled Western White Pine boxes from DK Woodworks, Bishop, CA. Recycled Western White Pine wood from Drake Wood Mill, Mammoth Lakes. Price to be determined.

A preview and reviews of the book can be found at www.insidethehighsierra.com and an order form with preorder discount can be found at <https://www.wolverinepublishing.com/store/inside-the-high-sierra-preorder/>. After the book arrives it will be available online from Wolverine Publishing and at these bookstores: The Booky Joint in Mammoth Lakes, Spellbinder Books in Bishop, Mono Lake Committee in Lee Vining, Word After Word Books in Truckee, and Sundance Books in Reno. If you wait for books to arrive, the first several books at Booky Joint, Spellbinder, and Mono Lake Committee will be accompanied with a signed, vintage, and limited-edition fine art poster. The poster printed at the legendary Gardner/Fulmer Printing.

Inside the High Sierra

Claude Fiddler